

The Further Adventures of

WALLY AND BERT

SAMPLE ONLY

Imagine we are writing a second Wally and Bert story, where they are going on holiday. Brainstorm some crazy ideas and answer the questions below.

Where do they decide to go? (Think of somewhere far away....)

How do they get there? (Think of an unusual form of transport.)

What is the weather like when they arrive?

What sort of food do they eat?

What do they do on holiday? (Think of a main event for the story...do they climb Everest and find a yeti? do they chase thieves up the Eiffel Tower?)

How does your story end?
